

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
METAL EXPOSURE AND TOXICITY ASSESSMENT
ON TRIBAL LANDS IN THE SOUTHWEST

Thinking Zinc

a research study to see if zinc – a natural metal from Mother Earth – helps restore balance in your body by fighting the harmful effects of uranium, arsenic and other heavy metals

Beesh Doot'izh Bantsáhákees

Thinking Zinc

RESEARCH
VOLUNTEERS
NEEDED

Announcing

Community Screening Event

10 am to 4:30 pm

Sat. August 14, 2021

and

9:30 am to 1:30 pm,

Sun. August 15, 2021

Blue Gap-Tachee Chapter House

(7 miles north of Hwy. 4 on Nav. Rt. 29, appx. 40 miles west of Chinle, AZ)

This pilot clinical study is open to anyone who is

- 21-64 years old
- not pregnant
- not diabetic
- not allergic to zinc
- has lived on the Navajo Nation for at least 5 years of their life

If eligible, we will interview you, ask you to provide blood and urine samples, and give you a 3-month supply of Zinc tablets and a grocery store gift card worth $30.

For more information, contact

Johnny Naize, 928-551-4233,
jnaize15@yahoo.com

Rose Dan, 928-383-1189,
Looze67@outlook.com

or call toll free, 1-877-545-6775

or visit srhc.org/Zinc

Sponsored by UNM METALS Superfund Research Program in collaboration with Blue Gap-Tachee Chapter and Southwest Research and Information Center. Funding is provided through NIH/NIEHS P42 ES025589 (UNM METALS Superfund Research Center) and the UNM Comprehensive Cancer Center. The content of this flyer was developed under the cited research award to the University of New Mexico. It is not been reviewed by the funding agency. Thinking Zinc has been approved by the Navajo Nation Human Research Review Board, NNR 18-330T.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY
METAL EXPOSURE AND TOXICITY ASSESSMENT
ON TRIBAL LANDS IN THE SOUTHWEST

Béesh Doot'izh Bantsáhákees

Díí na'alkaahígíí Béesh Doot'izh -Nahasdzáán béesh biyi' hólóonii - ats'íís tah ahíneel'áo nédoodzih biniyé bóhodínóotah. Leetso dóó béesh líbái at'íís tah doo ákwáhásinda yei yich'í naabaahgo hast'éé't'oolíí

Daonii doo

Hadazhtile' Biniyé Hoo'aah

Yiská Damóo góne' August 14, 2021

10 am to 4:30 pm

Damóo góne' August 15, 2021

9:30 am to 1:30 pm

Bis Doot'izh Nídeeshgiizh

Álahna'adleehígi

(7 miles north of Hwy. 4 on Nav. Rt. 29, appx. 40 miles west of Chinle, AZ)

Díí azee' ál'íidi dahodi'níl'í k'ehgo na'alkaahígíí t'áá héeshíí bich'í aa'át'é doo

- ✓ 21 dóó 64 bit'a'gi bináhaigo
- ✓ Awéé' doo bíniłtsáágóó
- ✓ Doo áshííh likaan neenít'íigóó
- ✓ Dóó Nabeehó bikéyah bikáagi kéehonít'oq asdla' nahaigo

Bee ná'ahóót'i'go, na'ídíkid nich'í yidoo'aał, nilizh dóó nidíł naahadookáał, Áádóó $30 bighago naatsoos nit'ízi ch'iyáán bee na'iiniihígíí naadootíí

Na'ídíłkidgo, díí bich'í hodíłne:

Johnny Naize, 928-551-4233,
jnaize15@yahoo.com

Rose Dan, 928-383-1189,
Looze67@outlook.com

Doodai' t'ááník'eh hane'íji, 1-877-545-6775

Doodai' src.org/Zinc bii'dídíí

Beesh Doot'izh Bantsáhákees

Thinking Zinc

RESEARCH
VOLUNTEERS
NEEDED

